Newman Club To Discuss

The New man Club has initiated a series of weekly discussion periods during which various topics of interest to collegians are presented.

Faculty Panel On Presidential Vote

Castleberry To Preside Over Forum Tuesday

Will it be Ike or Adlai this November? This and other campaign issues and candidates will be the topics for discussion by a panel group next Tuesday.

The meeting will be held in Rm. 210, Anderson Hall, from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m.

Presiding over the panel will be Dr. Donald Castleberry, chairman of the Social Science Division. The faculty speakers will be Dr. Theodore Treutlein and Mr. Thomas Lantos for the Democratic side, and Dr. George Gibson and Dr. Floyd Cave battling for the Republicans. In addition there will be student members selected to participate.

Leaders of both the Young Democrat and Young Republican off-campus groups emphasize attendance at the meeting. Mary Mc-

TRIP CANCELLED

The previously-planned trip to Santa Barbara was cancelled because the committee felt the expense was too high.

Guinness, member of the Northern California Executive committee for Eisenhower, said:

"It is important to attend this meeting in order to hear both sides of this issue and formulate ideas on the election."

Ken Azbill, chairman of the Students for Stevenson, added:

"We're trying, through more discussions of the candidates and issues, to stimulate further interest in political activity on campus."

The Young Democrats, Young Republicans, and other political groups of interested students, are working co-operatively rather than competitively, say Azbill and McGuinness. Their purpose is to form political thought, rather than to solicit votes they say.

The meeting is held under the auspices of the Social Science Division and an invitation is extended to both faculty and students to attend.

Frosh, Soph, To Join For Annual 'Hop'

Board Sets Up Constitution Revision Staff

The constitution of the Associated Students needs revision. Or so thinks the Board of Directors.

In official action at last Tuesday's Board meeting, the Directors gave president Cec Riley power to set up a committee to revise the ASSFSC constitution.

Bob Preble has been appointed chairman of the committee.

According to Riley, the present constitution is vague in many respects, and has caused a great deal of bother in interpretation.

The vagueness of the constitution was responsible for the confusion in the forthcoming election for representative - at - large. It gives no clear definition of the scholastic qualifications for the various positions, Riley said.

Another recent difficulty, Riley added, was in the resignation of former Sophomore president Dick McElroy. The Board of Directors had to make a special interpretation of the constitution as to whether the vice-president should succeed the president in such cases or a new election held.

The committee's report is tentatively scheduled for May of this year, according to Preble.

HONORARIES NEED 1.5

The Honorary Council of the C. A. A. recommends that the C. A. A. enforce a ruling requiring members of honoraries to maintain a 1.5 grade point average, and that it be required that a representative attend all council meetings.

Alumni Board Notifies Grads Of Homecoming

Two thousand letters were sent last week to alumni by members of the alumni board, inviting them to attend the Homecoming dinner and other Homecoming events on Saturday, November 1.

Dinner will be served in the new campus physical education building at 6 p.m. The dinner will be preceded by an election meeting at 5 p.m. in room 5A of the P.E. building.

Tickets for the banquet are $2.25 each, and may be obtained from Olga Perkins, alumni secretary, room 105, College Hall.

Alumni and friends, students and college staff members are invited to attend the dinner, according to Mrs. Perkins.

Aid For Austrian Children Asked In Plea From 'Friendship Fund'

Under the sponsorship of the American ambassador to Austria and American women volunteers a rehabilitation program for Austrian children, particularly those in children's homes and hospitals in Vienna, has been in operation since the close of the last war. This program is essential not only because institutional care is in such shockingly dilapidated condition, or because the need is so great and the number of Americans giving aid in Austria are so few, but because Vienna, lying as it does at the crossroads of East and West, is in such an important political position that it is necessary to have these future citizens remember that it was America that helped them, and not Russia, in their hour of need.

New Campus Gym Site Of Juvenile Jamboree Tonite

Jimmy Blas and his orchestra will provide the music for tonight's annual "Frosh-Soph Hop" scheduled from 9 to 12 p.m. in the new campus gym. The traditional dance is sponsored jointly by the freshman and sophomore classes.

Admission to the dance will be 75 cents per person, and $1.25 per couple.

Co-chairmen for the dance are Gayle Murray, sophomore class vice-president, and Dick McElroy. The refreshment committee is headed by Diane Liddy. Other committee chairmen include Jim

Delta Sigma Nu Sets Plan For Year At Tuesday Meet

Delta Sigma Nu, home economics club, staged a Halloween Pot-Luck dinner at its first meeting of the semester on Tuesday.

An informal meeting followed the dinner in FB114, with future plans for the group heading the agenda. Coming events for the club include a Halloween cookie sale on October 31, a November herb sale, and a Christmas party.

Members present at the dinner and meeting included Carol Bjostod, Rachel Durant, Beverly Moore, Alycee Momboisse, Glorie Ann Martinson, Elycee Dukatz, Ann Belcher, Winifred Brown, Noelle Delore, Viola Todd, Veatrice Simpson, Olga Martin, Pat Christensen, Marge Thori, Mary Lou Kigley. The next club meeting will be held on October 29 in FB114 at noon. The club is open to all State women.

OFFICIAL COLLEGE NOTICES

Another test for students working for speech credentials will be given October 24, from 9 to 12 a.m. at Frederic Burk 117. Those who missed the first exam may take it at that time.

A sign-up sheet for the test is outside the credential office on the bulletin board. Also on the bulletin board are the results of the first test.

Official college notices will be printed in this space regularly. All material which appears here comes to the Golden Gater directly from the Administration.

EDITORIAL

A Poor Choice

The Board of Publications, one of several boards and councils which are the backbone of student government at State, administers and formulates all general publications policy, both editorial and operating. The board has the power of appointing and removing of all publications staff, editorial and business, and serves as a board of appeal in the arbitration of specific disputes regarding publications. The members act as the representatives of the Board of Directors on all publications matters.

The Board of Publications, operating in an advisory capacity in a specialized area must, of necessity, consist of people having extensive backgrounds and interest in the publications field in order that the Associated Students be served adequately. This has been the policy of the past. With the rapid expansion of the college, it is vital that this policy be maintained.

The recent appointment of Rex Butler to the Board of Publications as member-at-large was made without consideration of this policy. In his four years at State, Butler has neither participated nor voiced any interest in the affairs of the Associated Students. He has never engaged in any activity relative to publications at the college. As a hanger-on in the Gater office over the years, he has contributed nothing to the student newspaper. With his appointment, however, he has suddenly gained a keen insight into publication techniques, and has expressed a "grave concern" over the alleged deterioration of the aforementioned publication.

Butler's appointment has not, as yet, been confirmed, fortunately. Time remains for the selection of a student with the necessary background for appointment to the board, one who has the interest of our college community at heart.

HOME FREEZER PLAN

Steak On Hamburger Budget-Says Who?

By GERTRUDE LUEHNING
(Home Economics Department,
San Francisco State College)

"Invest in a food plan and live like a king?" Well, maybe—

In recent months, salesmen for five different food plans have come to my house and tried to sell me a food contract along with a deep freeze box. I was doubtful. Then, when I heard numerous students exclaim "Aren't these food plans wonderful!" I decided to investigate.

My conclusion is that most, if not all food plans can be classed as high-pressure selling of foods at fairly high prices. The value of the added food box can be determined only by the individual needs of the buyer.

To eat like a king on a hamburger budget requires mathematical gymnastics yet unknown to man.

WATCH PRICES

I have not participated in a food plan of any kind, nor will I, because I can buy more advantageously by watching prices and knowing values. But you need't be a home economist to learn these values for yourself.

If you want pointers on meat, the industry itself has several good pamphlets which are easily obtained. As for the plans' frozen vegetables, fruits and juices, the prices quoted to me are not bad. However, if the assorted stock for your box includes broccoli, cauliflower, spinach or succotash, first look at your fresh produce counter values. Cooking fresh vegetables takes about the same 10 or 15 minutes to cook as do frozen ones.

To the credit of the processors, the vitamin and mineral content of their foods are satisfactorily high. Here the industry does a good and conscientious job.

Here are the reasons for looking at the food plans with a careful eye. First, no one is going to have a one or two year lien on my food dollars. While I'm paying for a "free" box, I am not free to purchase where and when I find the market most favorable.

TOO MUCH BONE

Secondly, the half or quarter beef I install in my box is not all meat. It contains a wealth of less-than-tender meat. Moreover, a good deal of the weight is in the bone and sundry trimming.

Thirdly, and most disconcerting to me, are the selling practices. The consumer has lost about all the ground gained in the past quarter century and is back to the low level of being "sold." The tactics include talking fast, showing pictures and figures fast, and talking down to the prospective subscriber. You are given nothing tangible over which you can think and figure soberly.

For me, the high insult mark was reached not long ago by a pair of salesmen who said that all they wanted was my listening time, followed by a "yes" or "no" answer.

Cal Poly Hosts Gators Tomorrow Nite

Gridders Prepare For 'Toughest Contest'; Mustangs Two Touchdown Favorite

By HAL GRANT

The San Francisco State gridders will play the role of underdog for the first time this year when they tackle a highly touted Cal Poly eleven tomorrow night at San Luis Obispo.

The Mustangs, pointing for the State game this week, coasted to a 19-0 win over Santa Barbara State last week. Cal Poly used mostly second and third string men in defeating the Gauchos so injuriously they have no troubles Saturday.

Coach Hughes, Mustang mentor, is well known to San Franciscans, having turned out brilliant teams at Menlo College for many years. His teams were always there or thereabouts in Northern California Junior College competition.

Alex Bravo, a 185 pound back who is fast enough to run on the track team, will lead the Cal Poly attack. The outstanding lineman on the squad is Stan Sheriff, 195 pound center from San Francisco's Washington High. Sheriff was twice All-San Francisco center with the Eagles, although he weighed no more than 165 pounds at that time. He should be quite a footballer now that he has his growth.

TEAM WEAKENED

The Gators lost the services of capable left halfback Rudy Smith this week when he reinjured his ankle in scrimmage Tuesday. Add to this the loss of Al Endriss, Harley Felure, the bruised rib of George Wehner, the temporary (we hope) cases of flu incurred by star gridders John O'Shea and Don Morretini and you have a very grim picture of the State team as of Friday, Oct. 17th.

On the positive side of the ledger we can talk about back Harry Bremond, center Jerry Harper, tackle Bob Foote, guard Don Morretini, and guard Maurice Magante's outstanding showing in this week's practice.

SCORE TO SETTLE

The Gators will have a score to settle with the Cal Polyans tomorrow. In 10 contests between the two schools State has dropped 8, won 1 and tied 1—not too impressive a record.

Soccermen Tangle With UC Saturday

Still smarting from the 4 to 0 spanking administered last week at the hands of the USF Dons, the Gator Soccer team will put their show on the road and head for Berkeley loaded for Bear. The Gators will take on Cal at 10 a.m. tomorrow, at Edwards Field at Cal.

This will be the first road game for the Staters after three contests at home. They so far have won one and lost two this season and hope to improve that mark at the expense of the Bears.

Cal will enter the contest with two games under its belt. So far they have met City College of San Francisco and the Santa Clara Broncos. Dennis Trason and Mike Dajani of the Bears were rated standouts in the City College versus California game.

A larger crowd than usual is expected to appear for the contest, bolstering seasonal attendance marks. Thus far the season's crowd has been estimated at 53 (including two dogs).

Golf Tourney To Start Soon

Golf manager Bill Novie has announced that this semester's hole-in-one contest will be held on October 21 and 22 from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. and from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. All students and faculty members are cordially invited to participate. Golf balls and clubs will be furnished by the school. A golf pro will be present to give free instructions.

Featured games in this week's basketball competition were the Alpha Zeta Sigma-Delta Phi Gamma contest and the News Staff A. C.-Frosh All Stars tilt.

The AZS squad nosed out a hustling BGT five Tuesday 25-24 to bring the league into a five way tie for first place as of last Wednesday.

The Frosh All Stars turned back a fighting News Staff quintet 32-22 last Tuesday night in a game that saw two members of the News Staff club make the casualty list via one broken finger, one black eye, and one broken tooth.

Water Poloists Lose To Stockton

State's water poloists were turned back by a strong Stockton College seven last Wednesday afternoon 11-7 in the Stockton campus pool.

The turning point in the score-fest came early in the third period when the Stocktonites pushed across six quick tallies, primarily on penalty shots. The Gator mermen were unable to get "acclimated" to the narrow Stockton pool.

Point makers and standouts for the Gators Wednesday were Bob Knapp, Norm Stupfel, Buss Vilas, and frosh Norman Cady.

S. F. State's newest sport (organized last year), water polo, is one of the most grueling in the athletic curriculum. During a quarter no player may touch the bottom or sides of the pool, even during the time-outs.

This afternoon the Gators take on Cal Poly in the new campus pool at 4:00 p.m. According to Coach Hal Harden the Mustangs have "a very strong team."

BASKETBALL

Returning Vets Will Bolster Team; Farmer Announces '52-'53 Schedule

Player Of The Week

Maybe ten milk shakes and a sport shirt will offset the trouble George Wehner had last Saturday afternoon. George suffered a bruised rib in the game with Occidental, the contest for which he was chosen Kappa Theta's 'Football Player of the Week.'

George is presently down with the flu and it is doubtful that he will see too much action in the State-Cal Poly game.

This St. Mary's transfer filled Al Endriss' shoes when Endriss was declared ineligible. In the Whittier game, 190-pound George scored six points. He holds down State's offensive end position.

Football player of the week will become a regular feature throughout the season, through the cooperation of Kappa Theta Sorority and sponsors of the gifts, Denny's Ice Cream Land and Arthur's Store for Men.

WE SEE HER EVERY DAY

Molly Dobson: The Lass Of Auld Scotland Who Pours Our Coffee

A wee bit of auld Scotland, that's Mrs. Molly Dobson, the friendly little lassie who dispenses coffee and food at the Snack Bar.

Molly was born in Rothesay, Scotland, which is a small island on a bay near Glasgow. It is chiefly a fishing community and features an 11th century castle in the center of the town.

She arrived in San Francisco 22 years ago and has lived in the same house all of this time. She has raised two children, Ion, 20, who is in the Navy, and Myra, 16, a student at Polytechnic High School.

She has worked on the campus 11 years altogether, and has been in the Snack Bar for five years. Her husband, Sid, also works here as a cashier in the cafeteria.

This little lady has as much school spirit as any student on the campus. She keeps up faithfully with school activities and takes a great deal of interest in her customers. While serving thousands of gallons of coffee, she has seen countless numbers of us "scholars" come and go.

She has seen many changes in the school since she has come here, such as the predominance of different age groups after the war and now. Also, she has gone through the huge influx of veterans which swelled the war-diminished enrollment and overcrowded the school.

With all the changes that the school has undergone in the last few years, Molly has been unaffected and still remains the same friendly person that we know—by Robert Horn.

Kappa Theta Elections

Mary Lou Wright is the newly elected president of Kappa Theta. The other officers are Yvonne Aldrete, vice-president; Barbara Litchfield, recording secretary; Mimi Cooper, corresponding secretary; Carol Benefield, treasurer; Carol Krase, sergeant at arms; Sally Morris, historian; Doris Coony, parliamentarian.

Industrial Arts Forum Elections

The Industrial Arts Forum held its first meeting for the fall term on Tuesday, October 14, at the new campus.

The organization held its elections to determine the officers for the fall term. The president is John Brisco, the vice president is Ernie Cann, secretary Allen White, treasurer Dick Saffholm and sergeant at arms is Norman Tauber.

A meeting of all industrial arts majors and minors was held at the new campus Tuesday, October 9. The meeting was held so that old and new students could get to know each other, and also to discuss some of the future possibilities of the industrial arts program and the industrial forum, an organization which is open to majors and minors of the program.

Among the things that were discussed were hours at which industrial arts courses could be offered without conflicting with other courses. One suggestion was to have a class or two on Saturday morning. Another idea, which was well received was to offer evening classes twice a week.

Some of the functions of the industrial arts forum were explained to the students. Some future ideas were discussed for the time when the organization gets a better foothold on the new semester.

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER!

They're made better to taste cleaner, fresher, smoother!

Take a Lucky from a newly opened pack and carefully remove the paper by tearing down the seam from end to end. Be sure to start on the seam. In tearing don't crush or dig into the tobacco. Then, gently lift out the cylinder. See how free Luckies are from air spaces—"hot spots" that smoke hot, harsh and dry—from loose ends that spoil the taste. Note Luckies' long strands of fine, mild tobacco are packed firmly to draw smoothly and evenly—to give you a cleaner, fresher, smoother smoke. Yes, Luckies are made better—to taste better!
